

Who are we?

"IDACTS: Ideas and Actions » is a non-profit association committed to provide all forms of support to the poorest in the fields of Education, Social, Development and all other Charity activities

"IDACTS" is based on the charitable system which has proven itself worldwide. We help both vulnerable families which schools to improve their functioning and the development of their students.

We decided to provide assistance especially to the Dades Valley in southern Morocco.

To carry out our plans, we will do our best, but we can not do it without you. Our association is recognized as an organization of general interest

With your help, we will be able to go even further.

Many thanks in advance for your support!

The president of the IDACTS association

What do we do?

EDUCATION

Promoting access to education and Improving childhood conditions. IDACTS helps the youngest children but also the most vulnerable or discriminated populations. The association also encourages communities to actively participate in the School life and the School management.

SOCIAL

Promote social and professional integration of the poorest, IDACTS promotes social and professional integration of young people from the most disadvantaged backgrounds.

DEVELOPMENT

Support the Communities in developing their projects, IDACTS encourages them to take decisions, develop, implement and evaluate their own projects development.

CHARITY

IDACTS help slow-income families, in order to bring a more comfortable environment where everyone will be able to start over, learn and thrive.

IDACTS also aims to comfort and care for the local population through a medical caravan and partnerships with local physicians, access to health care remains very difficult for the rural population.
